IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL PERSONS MAKING APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT WITH TNT

Dear Applicant,

SUBJECT: ACCURATE DECLARATION OF CRIMINAL HISTORY

Security is a vital element of our service and a key to the success of TNT, therefore all employees are screened accordingly to ensure the company's assets and reputation remains intact. Our customers expect us to handle their consignments with the same degree of care that would be exercised if they carried the goods themselves.

Criminal history checks are an integral part of the assessment of your suitability for the position that you applied for. It is imperative that you declare any criminal history or record (including criminal matters current before the courts) on your application for so that your application can be assessed in its entirety

An applicant's criminal history will be reviewed by TNT on a case by case basis, taking into account the inherent requirements of the position applied for.

There have been instances where people have applied for positions in the past and have not fully declared their criminal history. On some of these occasions, these people would have been successful in being offered a job, with their criminal history not impacting on their employment. However, the fact that they did not declare the criminal history on the Application for Employment was a basis for not offering the person the job. In other words, the person didn't get the job because they did not fully declare the criminal history and not for the criminal history itself.

You are reminded to complete the criminal history section of the Application for Employment accurately and in full. You are to include all events. Read the declaration on the Application for Employment carefully.

If you make a false declaration on the Application Form, it is highly likely that you will not be offered the role or your employment will be terminated in the probation period.

Therefore we encourage all applicants to divulge their full prior criminal history as it may mean the difference between an offer of employment or an unsuccessful application.

Yours sincerely,

Susan Davies

Administration & Customer Service

Police/Law Enforcement Agency Checks

Security is a vital element of our service and a key to the success of the Company. Everyone throughout the TNT Group of Companies is responsible for taking the necessary precautions to safeguard consignments and assets entrusted to our care. Our customers expect us to handle their consignments with the same degree of care that would be exercised if they carried the goods themselves. We must therefore create a secure environment for the property of our customers and other stakeholders. The Company expects all employees and contract carriers to safeguard its assets and reputation and protect customers' property. Any wilful or deliberate breach of the Company policy or rules will result in disciplinary action. Dishonesty by anyone in any way that affects the Company will be treated as gross misconduct. Action may include dismissal and/or legal proceedings.

Those candidates who are successful in being offered employment with the Company are required to complete and submit a New South Wales Police Form P799, "Application for National Criminal History Record Check: Standard Disclosure" to enable the Company to obtain information from the New South Wales Police on your criminal background (if any).

Do you agree to complete and submit this form and therefore disclose your criminal background (if any)? (Place a cross in one of the boxes below.) In the event you are successful in your application, any false information given or failure to disclose all requested information within this application form may lead to termination of employment.
